YWCA OF DELHI

YWCA since its inception in the late 19th century as an organization for women's welfare has grown into a widespread international network of great repute. Today it is the largest "Membership based Women's Movement" in the world that strives to act as a driving force to empower women, to demand justice and struggle against social, cultural, economic and political injustice. As inheritor of the Christian faith and heritage, it works towards initiating changes through a process of partnership in action.

The Various Departments of YWCA of Delhi

Education Committee: The Women's Training Institute and Vocational Training Institute provide vocational education at under garduate and post graduate levels to women in Delhi. The aim is to empower and impart skills training to women to make them independent and self-sufficient.

The Public Affairs and Social Issues Department (PASI) is responsible for gathering and dissemination of information regarding rights and justice concerns. It studies, analyses and advocates legislation and policies of Central and State Governments.

The Community Development Project (CDP) focuses on advancing rights of women & children through its various projects, the department works towards building self-confidence, leadership & knowledge on violence against women.

Working Women's Hostels (WWHs): The Centenary Hostel for working women and Jasola Working Women's Hostel provide hostels for the working women of Delhi.

Shelter Home: Maatritava Chhaya is a shelter home for destitute pregnant and lactating women. RKAK-short stay shelter home for distressed women. It also includes Neighbourhood School for underprivileged children (6-18 years).

The Blue Triangle Family Hostel (BTFH) provides safe and comfortable short stay accommodation for Domestic and International travelers. Funds generated from this service is used for the various Projects and Programmes of the YWCA of Delhi.

The Membership & Programme Department (MAP) aims to develop an active, vibrant and responsive membership. Its activities focus on the needs of women in the community. It organizes issue based empowerment programmes.

The Religious Education Department (REC) organizes faith based and interfaith dialogues and programmes.

The Youth Committee aims to develop leadership qualities in the youth and make them active participants in the "Y" movement.
